

| State Code | County Code | Tract Code | Total Housing Units | 1- to 4-Family Units | Median House Age (Years) | Inside Principal City? | Owner Occupied Units | Vacant Units | Owner Occupied 1- to 4- Family Units | Renter Occupied Units |
|------------|-------------|------------|---------------------|----------------------|--------------------------|------------------------|----------------------|--------------|--------------------------------------|-----------------------|
| 13         | 253         | 2001.00    | 2033                | 2004                 | 34                       | No                     | 908                  | 912          | 908                                  | 213                   |
| 13         | 253         | 2002.00    | 1586                | 1469                 | 44                       | No                     | 673                  | 170          | 673                                  | 743                   |
| 13         | 253         | 2003.00    | 1226                | 1212                 | 38                       | No                     | 638                  | 399          | 638                                  | 189                   |
| 13         | 253         | 9999.99    | 4845                | 4685                 | 39                       | No                     | 2219                 | 1481         | 2219                                 | 1145                  |

This map displays the state of Georgia with its county boundaries and major cities. A red outline highlights a specific region in the north-central part of the state, encompassing parts of Early, Spalding, Miller, and DeKalb counties. Within this highlighted area, several cities are labeled, including Marietta, Roswell, and Atlanta. The map also shows major highways and water bodies. Other counties and cities visible on the map include Albany, Wilkes, and Macon. The map is titled "Georgia" at the top center.

[illegible]